

O-NET Assignment Rubric

O-NET	Exemplary (4)	Proficient (3)	Developing Proficiency (2)	Not Proficient (1)
Step 2 Analysis	Student includes extensive information (perhaps even all information from O*Net) for each area in the Step #2 table.	Student has completed all areas of the Step #2 table with at least some basic information.	Student partially completes areas to assess for all three career options in the Step #2 table -or- Student fully completed only two careers	Student does not investigate three careers -or- Student leaves a significant number of table cells empty
Comparison of 3 chosen areas from step 2	Student compares all three areas in all three careers and- Student provides rationale for chosen career option	Student compares all three areas in all three careers	Student only compares three careers for only two areas -or- Student only compares two careers for three areas	Student does not compare areas for three careers
Pros and Cons of three career options	Student lists more than three pros and cons for each career option	Student lists three pros and three cons for each career option	Student lists one or two pros or cons for each career option	Student does not list pros or cons for any career options
Comparison of pros and cons of three career options	Student compares pros and cons of all three career options -and- Student provides rationale for chosen career option	Student compares pros and cons of all three career options	Student compares one or two pros or cons for each career option -or- Student only compares pros or compares cons	Student does not compare either pros or cons for each career option
I am Pioneer Ready!				