

SCHOLARSHIP

The Old Oak Festival at Tusculum College is a weekend-long celebration of the arts and culture of East Tennessee. Local artists and musicians converge on our campus to display their work and enjoy Tusculum's distinctive community.

In the same tradition, Tusculum and the Fine and Performing Arts and English departments at the college would like to celebrate exceptional students interested in English, Art, Music, and Theater by offering three scholarships in the amount of $500. Submit your application by Friday, April 13th—winners will be announced Saturday, April 21st at the Tusculum Review launch party.

Requirements:

- Must be a senior in high school
- Must apply and have been accepted to Tusculum
- Must have attended Old Oak Workshops on April 6, 2018
- Must submit entry for consideration by the scholarship committee by April 13, 2018

Please submit original work only. Submissions will be kept by the college.

Please choose one submission from one of the categories below. We will only judge one submission. In celebration of Old Oak, we encourage you to let East Tennessee living influence your submissions.

ENGLISH

- Submit:
- A short story (300-1200 words)
 - Craft a poem
 - Construct an essay (300-1200 words) defining the culture of East Tennessee and how that culture has influenced your life thus far.

ART

- Submit:
- Produce a drawing (send us a high-quality photo or reproduction)
 - Create a painting (photo or reproduction)
 - Collate a collection of photography (3-9 images)
